PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
ROSS HIGH SCHOOL
FREMONT, OHIO

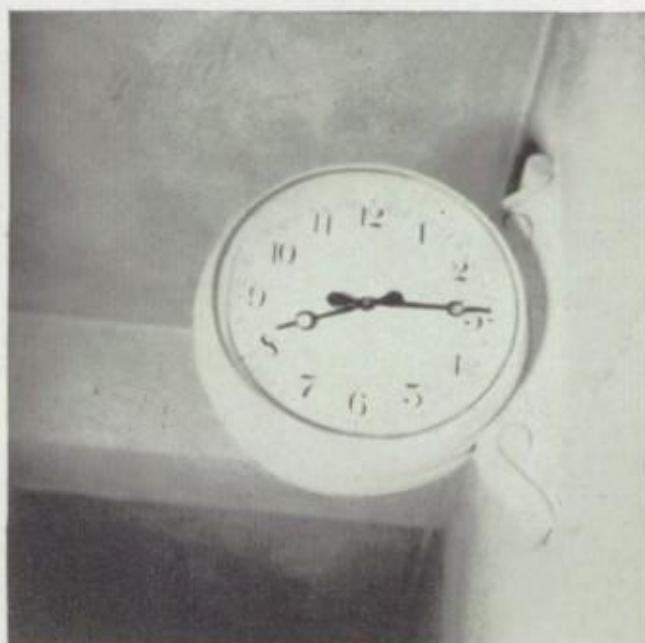

We gathered together in a discord — young and ignorant. Out of this we have been molded into a unified masterpiece. And to hold our hopes, joys, ambitions, disappointments, and even sorrows of this last year close to us forever, we have assembled this — Our Annual.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT H. H. CHURCH

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The office of Superintendent of Schools is competently filled by Mr. H. H. Church. A sincere friend of the students of Ross High, he is always "ready, willing, and able" to cope with any problem which may arise.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

One of the most vital forces in Fremont education is the Board of Education. Being fully aware of the problems of youth and education, the Board seeks to find new roads whereby our school life will be fuller and richer.

DR. B. O. KREILICK

MR. C. F. WALTON

MR. TRAUB GOTTRON

MRS. W. B. HOLMES

MR. L. E. SPAYD

Behind the steady rhythm of our school life stands a man who wields the baton directing our activities. Always ready with a kind smile, a cheery word, good advice, and a twinkle in his eye, he is the best friend that any student in Ross High has.

PRINCIPAL A. C. STOKES

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL F. H. BODE

"Slow clock, eh? I've heard that excuse before!" Just one of the many things Mr. Bode has to listen to each day. His schedule is a full one with the supervision of absent slips, the scheduling of school activities, and the teaching of algebra classes.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

And now our congratulations to those seniors whose character, scholarship, leadership, and willingness to serve have won for them a place in the Ross High Chapter of the National Honor Society.

MR. C. R. COOPER

With the burdens of the Senior Class upon his shoulders, Mr. Cooper, for the past six years, has cheerfully and loyally sponsored all Senior activities.

MISS KUNTZ

From the enthusiastic seventh graders to the confident juniors, all have entered into the activities of the school with fine spirit. Many days have been spent together in melodious harmony, while only a few minor discords have jarred the rhythmic score. These underclassmen comprise the unfinished symphony of the school. Their past performance promises a tuneful grand finale.

ORGANIZATIONS

ANNUAL STAFF

First Row—Bingman, Fought, Croxford, Gilliland, Woonacott, Hyde, Bowersox, Maier, Kittle, Mr. Carr. Second Row—Wingard, Vance, Nesbitt, Held, Brucher, Wiewandt, Gessner, Gassman. Third Row—Deemer, Minich, Zirm, Smith, Simms, Troike, Pasch, Mayers, Rahm, Ruff.

The Croghan Staff, under the direction of Mr. Carr, has attempted to give a portrait of school life as seen through the eyes of its members. Though the task has not been easy, the staff enjoyed the intimate glimpses it saw while gathering material for this book. Michael Minich, the man behind the “musical” camera, has helped Editor Mary Held direct the pages of this annual.

SENIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

First Row — Hetrick, Snyder, Balsizer, White, Druckenmiller, Gilliland, McKay, Mr. Stokes.
Second Row — Shammol, Ball, Davins, Magsig, Rice, Edwards, Brockman.
Third Row — Miller, Rimelspach, Gilliland, Seigenthaler, Thompson, White.

The Student Council, a compromise governing body composed of faculty and students, has seen extra service this year. It has taken the initiative in providing us with a cleaner and more orderly building of which we can be proud, it sponsored the magazine drive, and many other school-wide projects—together with the P. T. A. it sponsored the indoor circus. Truly a distinguished group worthy of our recognition and respect.

JUNIOR HIGH STUDENT COUNCIL

GIRL RESERVES

Girl Reserves — members pledged to a code of high ideals — post-Christmas tea, Mother-Daughter banquet, splash party, spring formal, charity work, excellent club programs, profitable hot dog stand in cooperation with Hi-Y to fill the club money bags. All in all a very successful year.

HI-Y

“To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.” The boys of the Hi-Y club try to live up to the aims of this organization. Hard work, inspiring meetings, development of ability to be a “big brother” both in and out of school, knowledge gained from talks by outside speakers, and the meaning of the gleaming red and white triangle—through all of these the boys are taught to be good citizens.

GIRL'S LEADERS

This organization is composed of girls from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. These girls must rank high scholastically, and must possess qualities of sportmanship, leadership, and cooperation. Their duties consist of refereeing intramurals and taking care of detail work in the gym classes. The sponsor of this organization is Miss Tennerstedt.

"F" CLUB

The "F" Club, organized to more closely unite the diversified sports of our school, has been a tradition in Ross High for several years. The membership of the club is made up of boys who have earned a letter in any sport. These boys are always willing to cooperate with the faculty in helping to maintain good sportmanship, order in the halls, and school spirit.

F. F. A.

First Row—Mr. Burdick, Maillard, Stout, Michaels, Lindsay, Wilbert, Avers, Kerns. Second Row—Hirt, Weichel, Barman, Carr, Potter, Stotz, Druckenmiller, Miller, R. Third Row—Fought, Secrist, Shafer, Magsig, Smith, Hirt, Schultz. Fourth Row—Miller, F., Kreilick, Keating, Wilbert, Linder, Hetrick, Huss. Fifth Row—Stokes, Beckman, Hirt, Keller, Swanger. Sixth Row—Gibbs, Weller, Schock, Shannon, Hampsher.

Striving for cooperation and leadership, the F. F. A. carries on helpful and interesting activities. Under the able direction of Mr. Burdick, the F. F. A. club is flourishing, and headed by Clifford Gibbs and Carl Hirt, it is fast becoming a prominent extra curricular unit. The boys enjoy judging contests and other trips. They sponsor sales and hold a pest hunt in the spring.

UNITED TRADES ORGANIZATION

Outside speakers, talking on such subjects as aviation, architecture, electricity, and legal courts furnish the members of the Trades Club with a wealth of material for their weekly meetings. Other than having lectures, the boys are privileged to see a number of interesting industrial films. Mr. Murray, the faculty advisor, and Robert Dalton, president, seek to keep the members interested by planning, in advance, worthwhile projects and work.

DEBATE

L. to R. — Mr. Roberson, Orbits, Reardon, Gassman, Le Grand, Gibbs, McKay, Gessner, Miesle, Brokate, Mr. Carr.

Arguing their way through nine tournaments and participating in more than one hundred contests, the Ross High debate squad chalked up a record 1937-38 season. Under the tutorship of new coaches, Mr. Roberson and Mr. Carr, the debaters scored several timely victories this year. For the first time in Ross forensic history, they captured first place at the Heidelberg Debate Tournament. Aside from that, they were district champions in the Ohio State Debate League and winners of the Fremont tournament.

LIBRARY STAFF

First Row — Koenig, Batesole, Lorenz, Rumery, Kuntz, Kuntz, Conner, Manges, Norton, Magsig, Brugger. Second Row — Nord, Bauders, Ellsworth, Keating, Dickman, Sherman, Peterson, Swartz, Maier.

A group of girls who give generously of their time to serve the entire student body. Their duties consist of checking, cataloging, shelving, and repairing books.

A CAPPELLA

In A Cappella work there is a continual striving for good posture, beauty of tone, sensitivity to pitch, and a better understanding of all types of music. Quoting Mrs. Elsie Green Datesman, director of the choir, "This year's choir is the only one I have ever had that I could feel free to take the liberty of changing the interpretation of the music just before a concert."

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP BAND

Band Members: Clarinets—Ruff, Sheldon, Price, Held, Ball, Woonacott, Jackson, Bray, Keefer, Wheeler, Kiser, Stokes, Fish, Perry, Druckenmiller, Rhoades, Hilty, Poorman. Saxaphones—Chaney, Manahan, Siler, Gable. French Horns—Davis, Andrews, Davis, Wanstall, Burkett, Archibald, Decker. Baritones—Overmyer, Kolbe, Younker. Piccolo—Timpe, Poorman. Flute—Ketterer, Cochran, Bahnsen. Oboe—Poorman, Cypher. Trumpets—Sabroske, Shafer, Hufford, Huss, Corxford, Berlincourt, Arnold, Huddle, Wiegman, Burkett, Bauman, Heflinger, Stang, Burling. Drums—Foster, Overmyer, Hirt, Brucher, Schaaf, Earhart, Lewis. Trombones—Worman, Cooley, Carroll, Miller, Schell, Huss, Berlincourt, Swanger. Bases—Cooper, White, Stoner, Beckley, Havens, Fligor, Shilling. Flag Bearers—Croxford, Bartlett. Drum Major—Audre Ketterer. Director—Mr. Sells. Assistants—Mr. Osbun, Mr. Lorenzen.

In the past three years the band has been working up to a crescendo of success. Through hard work on the part of Mr. Sells, and cooperation of the band members, excellent harmony has been achieved these last few years at the state contest and community concerts. The ratings received in the district and state meets, and the large audiences which attended the Sunday afternoon concerts of the band are a tribute to its members as well as to its director.

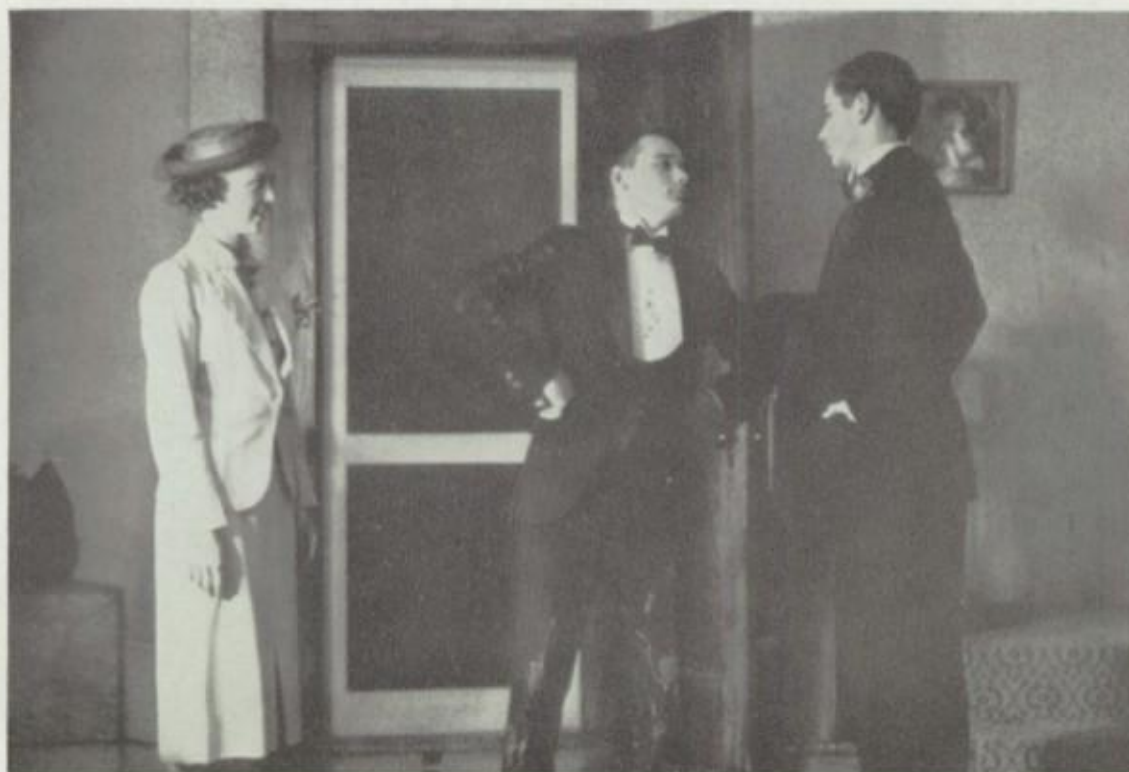

DRAMATICS CLUB

Membership — Alberts, Ballard, Bartlet, Basch, Berlekamp, Bingman, Bolinger, Bowersox, Bowes, Brinkerhoff, Brockman, Brown, Brugger, Brutcher, Cochran, Connors, Croxford, Dorr, Fought, Freeman, Gassman, Gessner, Gibbs, C., Gibbs, N., Hardy, Hectors, Held, Hilt, Hoch, Hunt, Huss, Hyde, Ketterer, Kaiser, Kittle, Koenig, Kuntz, Lease, Le Grand, Lilly, Lorenz, Lucas, Manges, Mayers, McKay, Miller, K., Miller, P., Minich, Nitchke, Otermat, Overmyer, Parker, Patterson, Perkins, Petonke, Post, Price, Puterbaugh, Rahn, Reardon, Reinbolt, Roberts, Roby, Rogers, Ross, Ruff, Russell, Ruth, Schaaf, Scherf, J., Scherf, E., Shultz, Schwartz, Sheldon, Sherman, Sieganthaler, Simms, Sisson, Slaymaker, Smith, B., Smith, R., Spayd, Stockberger, Stoner, Strohl, Stuckey, Swaidner, Vannetta, Welker, Wiewandt, Worman, Thompson, Zerman, Zwir.

The curtain is drawn and an awaiting audience witnesses another successful production of Ross High. This year they chuckled merrily at the merry strains of "Tommy" and sat tense and breathless through the all-absorbing "Night of January 16th." The success of these plays was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Bone and Miss Roberts, the conscientious practicing of the cast, and the labors of the stage hands, costume designers, and business staff.

"TOMMY"

Cast — Zerman, Kuntz, Conner, Spayd, Stuckey, Swaidner, Lucas, Goebel, Worman, LeGrand, Hardy, Kridler, Siegenthaler, Ballard, Berlekamp, Horn.

Timid Tommy takes tempting tokens to the Thurbers. Tobacco tantalizes Mr. Thurber. Tough Taffy takes Mrs. Thurber's teeth to town. Tuttle tries to tell Tommy that to take tender Marie, to try thrusting tokens to tempt. Tommy tries to tease the Thurbers to throw Tommy through the threshold. Terrible, terrific Tommy then takes tender, timid Marie to the town "tyer," thus tying the two together. Thus the tiny tots-Juniors treated the town to "Tommy."

THE NIGHT OF JANUARY 16th

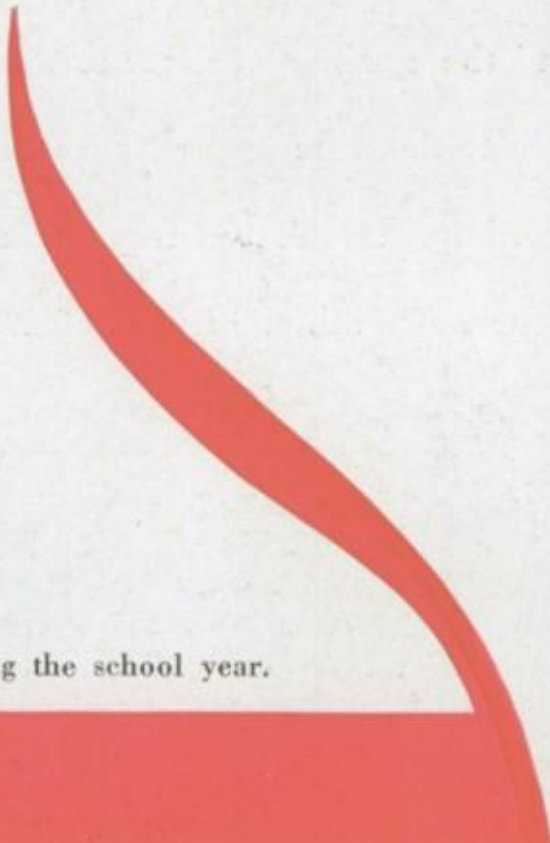

Cast — Huss, Ballard, Berlekamp, Stuckey, Worman, Ruff, Hyde, Price, LeGrand, Siegenthaler, Gessner, Bowersox, McKay, Held, Hardy, Vannatta, Heckters, Hilt, Brown, Minich, Slaymaker, Rahn, Perkins, Brinkerhoff, Wiewandt, Brockman, Gibbs, Sheldon, Gassman, Zerman, Thomson, Root, Bingman, Post, Bolinger, Fought, Hyde, Ruth, Smith, Croxford, Bartlett, Ketterer.

Most successful play ever produced at Ross High—colorful—humorous—tragic—and a big surprise ending that was most unusual.

ATHLETICS

These activities appear in the order in which they occur during the school year.

COACHING STAFF

Left to Right — Althoff, Stults, McClintock, Tennerstedt, Shipe, Gabel, Gruse.

The nineteen hundred thirty-eight athletic season is drawing to a close and the coaches who make up the coaching staff of Ross Righ are shelving the equipment for another summer. On the walls and in the trophy cases can be found the symbols of successes of the past year. Clean sportsmanship is not taught to the teams alone but to the student body as well. These coaches make up an important force in our high school system for they are the ones behind the successful athletic season of 1938.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach McClintock started his first season as head coach of football with the aid of nine lettermen who were left from the scrappy 1936 team. Using these men as a nucleus, he built a team which was to finish the season with an excellent record. Until the Toledo Scott game the Little Giants conquered every foe, but the Scotts proved to be the downfall of the Purple and White. Even though the Elyria score board showed a score of 12—7 in favor of that team, many fans declared it was the best played game of the season. We met Sandusky and again failed to chalk up a win. At the end of the 1937 Varsity Football Season the records told a story which clearly pointed out the good work done by the team—seven wins and three losses.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

First Row—Vaffis, Forgerson, Brunover, Rollins, A., Lawrence, Kelly, Pratt, Waggoner, Laeny, Beeker, Kane, V., Collier, Lawrence. Second Row—Payne, Burel, Kreilick, King, Hoffman, Rollins, W., Lantz, Ruland, Redding, C., Slaymaker, Bowlus, Young, L., Pavelle, Kane, Dorbeck, Null, Maillard, Perry. Third Row—Burton, Myslinski, Halm, Redding, W., Filson, Parker, Gaylord, Notestine, Heflinger, Wisbon, Rimelspach, Eden, Jenkins. Seated on the ground—Koebel, Schultz.

Reserve Coach "Eddie" Gabel was blessed with a wealth of material and he wasted no time in building up one of the strongest reserve teams seen here for many years. The boys willingly worked and cooperated with the coaches and varsity squad, knowing that "the reserves of today make the varsity of tomorrow." The record with which the 1937 Reserve season closed is a true indication of the outstanding work done by the team.

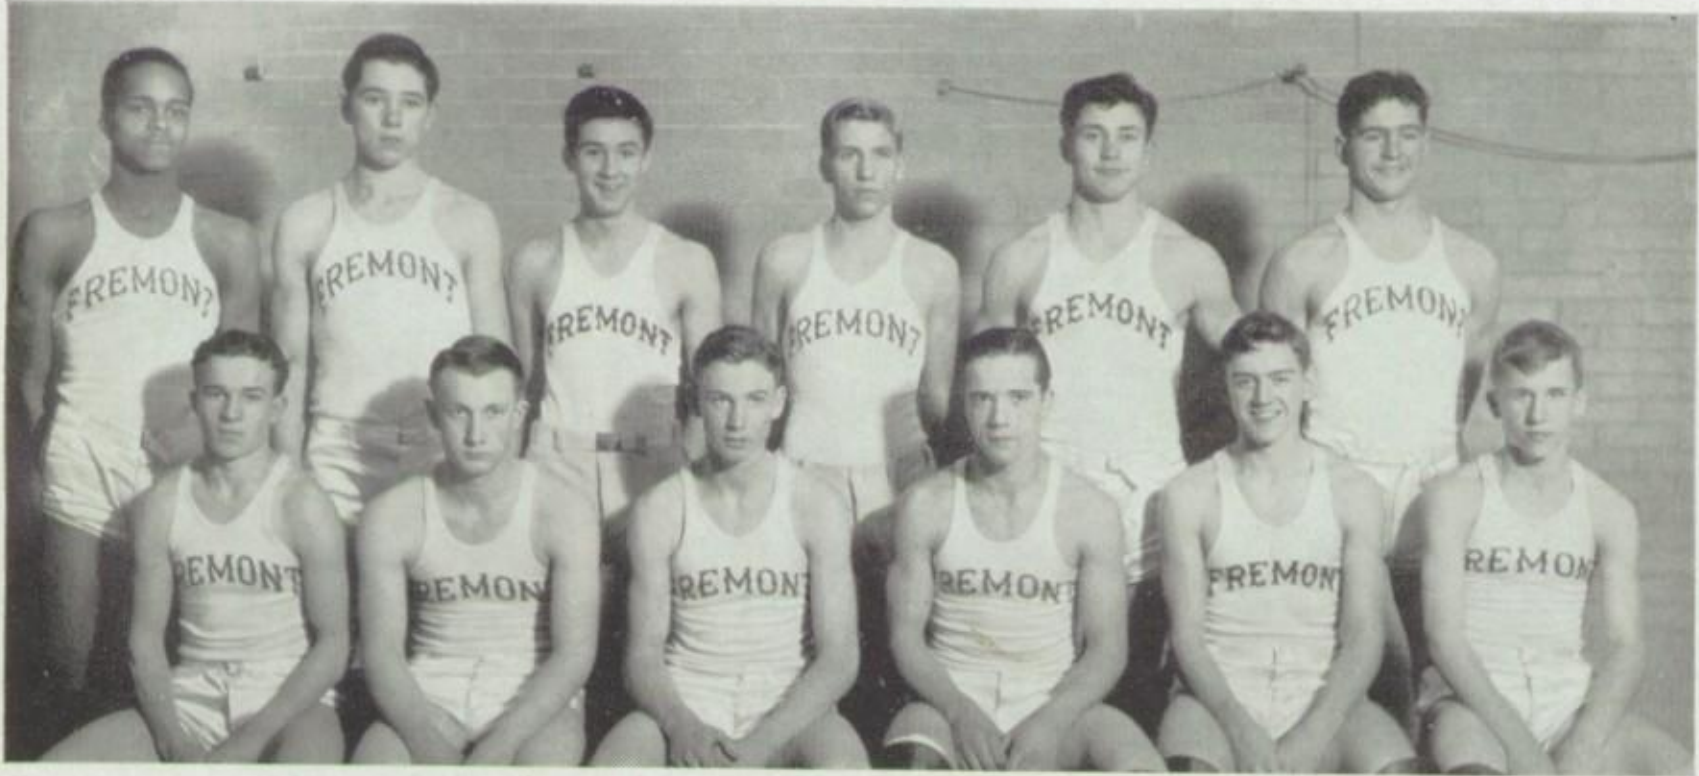

CROSS COUNTRY

First Row—Mielke, Tolhurst, Broshius, Keller, Berger, Sewell, Hufford. Second Row—Chestnutwood, Peach, Parks, Klawitter, Golden, Jackson, Mr. Althoff, Coach.

With the return of only three lettermen, Coach Althoff began early in the season to shape a team from the twenty-five boys who reported for practice. Fremont was defeated in the first meet by one point but in the next two meets the team was victorious. In the meet preceding the district, the teams were tied. With eleven teams participating, Fremont placed fourth, thus closing a successful season. At the close of the season, Larry Tolhurst was elected Honorary Captain and Norman Keller, The Captain-elect.

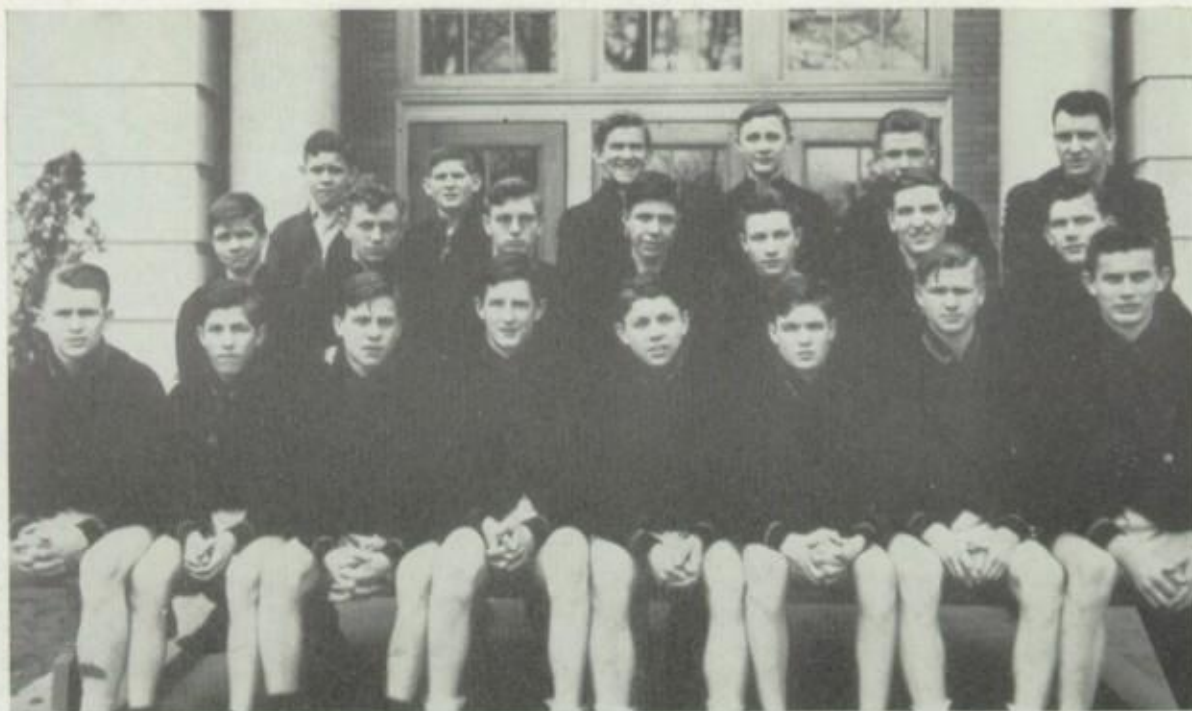

VARSDITY BASKETBALL

First Row—Kochy, Deemer, Beeker, White, Manahan, Brunover. Second Row—Rollins, Shaw, Vaffis, Stull, Wolfe, Rice.

The Purple and White battling five, piloted by their new coach, Eddie Gabel, swept through a tough schedule to win ten and lose five games, including two victories over our beloved enemy, Sandusky. Cooperation and a fighting spirit prevailed in all their encounters and led them to choose the fighting "feather", Bud Beeker, as their honorary captain.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

First Row—Pratt, Little, Eden, Carroll, Davis, Chaney, Ruland, Berger.
Second Row—Perry, Hecktors, Hufford, Golden, Bower, Babione, Berlekamp.
Third Row—Paine, Null, Woodruff, Bowlus, Kane, Mr. Shipe.

Coached by Mr. Shipe, the latest addition to the Ross High coaching staff, the Little Giant Reserves had a fairly successful season, winning eight games and losing nine. Many of the boys displayed a wealth of talent and will be back next year bidding for a varsity berth. The team in general showed a great deal of cooperation in working with Coach Shipe and should be commended for their fine attitude.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

First Row—Miss Tennerstedt, Druckenmiller, White, Squires, Hineline, Strohl, Welker, Gilliland, Scherf, Reppetto. Second Row—Peterson, Payden, Pasch, Troike, Cooley, Roberts, Hess, Miller, Egan. Third Row—Schaaf, Ruland, Davis, Schaffer, Quilter, Maier, Bork, Schell, Gilberg.

Tenny's "Huskies" closed their final season of basketball with an undefeated record. As a team they were outstanding in sportsmanship, cooperation, ability, team work, and speed. The girls who composed this team and who deserve considerable recognition are: Jean Hineline, Captain, Hazel Squires, Willa White, Florence Gilliland, Mary Dolores Egan, Faye Troike, Eileen Pasch, Donnabelle Payden, Wayno Druckenmiller, Norma Strohl, Jane Scherf, Patricia Miller. Managers—Bess Reppetto, June Peterson.

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP SWIMMING TEAM

One for all, all for one, and everybody for the team. Coaches Stults and Gruse are "the one for all," working consistently and diligently from October to March, producing one of the most successful sports of Ross High in respect to achievements. Each member works for and with the coaches to make the "all for one." Yet best of all they combine their efforts to produce a winning team, and, as results show, they were highly successful, winning seven dual meets, the Canton Relays, the State Meet, and placing fifth in the National Meet at Philadelphia.

JUNIOR HIGH SWIMMING TEAM

Under the leadership of Mr. Gruse, the seventh and eight grade swimming team came up to par with the teams preceding them. Extreme competition is not stressed to these youngsters, this beginning swimming experience being intended merely to acquaint them with the fundamentals.

TRACK

First Row—Clark, Myslinski, Arnold, Maillard, Bowers, Chestnutwood. Second Row—Babione, Vaffis, Manahan, Jackson, Scherer, Huddle, Kish, Kinney, Filson, Sewell, Little, Peach, Klawitter, Geller. Third Row—Coach Shipe, Mielke, Rollins, Swaidner, Beeker, Briggs, Berger, Reichert, Shaw, Hufford, Ruland, Feighner, Koebel, Collier, Waggoner. Fourth Row—Pasch, Miller, Tolhurst, Vaffis, Spangler, Kochy, Horn, Ballard, Broshious, Keller, Erchenbrecher, Goodwin, Overmyer, Gilliland, Heckters, Mr. Althoff, Coach.

The track season this year began with a turnout of fifty candidates, the squad being formed around nine lettermen. Phil Shipe assisted "Whitey" Althoff by relieving the burden of the weights and field events. By reason of the overwhelming defeats already administered to Mansfield, Lima, and Toledo Waite, the thin-clads show every indication of going through their season undefeated.
